

Run 490 Ivybridge Town Hall Car park. Hare Marigold.

We gathered in the car park by the town hall, as the clock chimed out seven thirty G.M. called us to order. First really cold night this year and we were very few in numbers. Surely not the cold keeping hardy hashers indoors!

Quick any notices, any visitors, any virgins? We had three virgins all brought along by Pinkie. Quickly made to feel welcome, then over to Comes Early who was standing in for Marigold who was still out on the trail. The short is about 3 miles and the long about 4 and as they are girlie miles who knows how long that is any way. Pointed on on over the road, over the bridge and from there on I was lost.

Nice gentle run alongside the river gradually climbing up. I managed as usual to get towards the back, eventually catching up with Floater and Drop Dead Gorgeous, and two other girlies (sorry did not get their names). We found the trail climbing up through the woods, reaching the top we ran along Kings Gutter Leet (so I'm told). Big Foot somehow missed the trail got lost did a loop and came up behind the back markers, and started over again. Eventually we hit the road where Damp Spot was lurking in the hedge. Short on the road Longs through the gate. Floater decided we girls should all go long, and who are we to disagree. The long we were told once we had passed through the gate was probably another 4 miles and Wet Spot was grinning. Girlie miles or what?

We ran along a track for a while then gradually climbed up onto Henlake Downs. From here we could see the light of Ivybridge so down we ran towards them. Hue and Cry caught up with us for a short time but disappeared. Understandable really as we seemed to have lost the trail and ended up at the bottom end of the town. Brisk trot up through the town and on on to new venue Bridge Inn. When I finally got into the pub could not believe there were so many hashers there, arrived after the start did the trail, and still arrived in the pub before me! I guess that's Hashers for you.

The Landlord gave us the beers for the down downs and was thanked for his hospitality. Argie was acting RA for the evening. Down Downs were awarded to:

T shirt for 100 runs to Wet Spot

T shirt for 400 runs to Meavy Maid

Comes Early (no idea what for)

Naming of Bradley - Nitro Moose

Good evening had by all on on to can't remember where next week.
