

THE TIMES AND ETCETERAS OF SH4

EVENING EDITION: 14 February 2007

LOVE WAS IN THE AIR... by Well'ard and Screwloose

A Fantastic hash was laid by ALI G on this Valentine's evening; taking us over dales, through streams, under trees and up some serious inclines. Romance with in the air, with a starry sky above and a first class beer stop, complete with wine and chocolates, hosted by his better half – what a treat! Those who didn't run, but instead went straight to the pub (NUTCRACKER and WOOF-WOOF and their respective Beaus) missed a blinder of a hash. Perhaps the lure of a little romantic seclusion was too much for them?

LOCAL PUB UNDER SEIGE FROM EX-CONS

The atmosphere in the George & Dragon could be cut with a knife this evening, as local gangsters and their glamorous molls came out to terrorise the locals. There were scuppers at the bar as unsavoury characters jostled to get their next fix, while shady dealings went on the back room, organised by JELLY BABY and her nameless accomplice, and minded by local heavy BIG BOUY.

SOUTH HAMS GANGSTER HOT-FOOTS IT

Infamous South Hams gangster GOOLIE was spotted tonight, in typical unsavoury fashion. Not only was he reported to have been ogling local runners whilst sprawled on his back in a field, a witness later heard him trying to coax our own PULLIT into fondling his favourite piece of equipment. It is a symptom of our failing justice system that this man is still on the streets.

COMPO CASE BROUGHT AGAINST PILLAR OF THE COMMUNITY

A lesson in health and safety can be learnt as HT2 tonight found herself to be the victim of negligent gate handling by BIGFOOT. Only minor injuries were reported, but the incident is believed to have stemmed from extreme height related differences. An out of court settlement is looking unlikely.
