

Run494...Loddiswell...21/02/07...Hares: Pooshit & Loppit

It was a foul night to be out and about, but thankfully the Loddiswell Inn opened its doors to the weary and at around 7.30pm, alone and in pairs, they dragged their aching sorry bones towards the warmth of the open fire and the comfort of a warm mug of ale. There they sat and lay. At first regaining their breath from the long trek from the car park, then gradually awakening to the companionship of their fellow weaklings they started to liven and chatter. First to arrive at the fireside was JAILER, longtime ailed by a "Funny Virus" and a spurious ague of the joints. Soon to join him was HT2, herself suffering with a nasty toothache. Gradually their numbers began to swell, NUTCRACKER - "Scrubbers Knee", DOGONE & VIZ - "hungry runilitis" and a steady troupe of nondescript waifs. Last to arrive were FALLEN WOMAN and BROKEN MAN, both struck with ALFIE'S syndrome (Arrived Late Finished Early).

But hark, as they sat, allowing the glow of the fire to penetrate their joints something stirred. Outside in the slashing, piercing rain there gathered the fit and the strong. Barely dressed they prepared to tackle anything the night could unleash upon them. They jumped and stretched their toned bodies and looked forward to the challenges ahead. Yes, outside there was a HASH, organised by a pair of super-fit virgin layers LOPPIT (Nee ANDY) and PUSHIT.

The fit went about their hectic disorganised business trailing round muddy river beds and soggy pasture. OLLIE, like a siren was calling the unsuspecting innocent into a bog. Rumours spread among them, BIGFOOT got lost on the short. BIGFOOT was the only one to do the long. DORIS & MEAVEY MAID the only ones to do the long. NITRO – pissed on a lady garden, or was it a ladies garden. Those that missed the long did it for longer and only two made the beer stop provided by COMPO.

Eventually the fit made it back to the warmth of the inn and united with the weaklings and there were down-downs.

These were awarded to –
NITRO – Pissing on a Lady Garden.
COMPO – For a non stop beer stop.
PUSHITT – Excellent Virgin Lay.
LOPPIT – Excellent Virgin Lay and a new name.
WETSPOT – Being Wetspot.
