

Hash 505 .. Bigbury .. Hares: Goolie & Sniffer .. 02.05.07

Goolie on the run...

Close to 90 hashers turned up for the Bigbury Birthday Bash, visitors from Ash Hash and Teign Valley along with fair weather hashers (Strongbow) were out in force.

A beautiful evening ahead of us Goolie accompanied by yet another female hare Sniffer informed us that we needed to be quick to catch the sea tractor, he hadn't factored the ten minute introductions and announcements, this led to several longs taking the short route in fear of missing out.

The trail took us towards Challaborough or as Ging Gang pronounces it Chaa-llaar-bra. Soon dealing with a check BSE careers off towards a very mischievous looking herd of cows who were, unlike most of us not intimidated by her at all and promptly scared her off.

Ging Gang was heard saying that she had no idea where she was going, those who don't know her thought that she was staying loyal to Goolie, those who do know her knew that she was telling the truth.

The early birds had a pleasant roomy crossing to Burgh Island only marred by the need to swat away a persistent annoying pest, Wetspot who was collecting money before anyone could get away from him. The rest of the hash surely abusing the tractors maximum load and that was without Big Buoy on board.

The record was also broken in how many hashers you can get in the Pilchard, not helped by the fact that the birthday boys cake took up a whole table, by the way does anyone know who the good looking chap pictured on the cake was?

The food was duly dished out by the manservants to avoid running out, however those at the back of the queue knew that they had missed the boat when Marigold emerged with a dollop of rice and a fish spine and Wetspot managed to procure a bread roll, anyone feel sorry for him?

Marigold filled up on scrumpy and after rolling down the slope, weaving across the sands and moaning about paying 80p for a bag of crisps did what all good sisters do and vomited all over Nitromousse's feet as he held her hair back.

The roof was lifted by the hash version of Happy Birthday and a warm glow was felt by all those candles.

Troughie gave a good account of himself as RA and issued the down downs to ..

Goolie for not quite being 60,

TB for still being here despite promising to leave the country,

BSE for not being as mad as the cows on route and Sniffer for naively agreeing to spend an afternoon with the old man.

on on.

Come early
