

Here we are at Stoneycombe and here is a nice picture of who did what. A picture speaks a thousand words!

Piddler laid a lovely long, five-mile trail through Stoneycombe woods.

We all had to stop and enjoy the view across the quarry.

All these pylons helped keep us on course.

Here's the lovely Bickleigh Mill pub.
They shut the doors on us when when we sang
"Happy Birthday" because our caterwauling was too loud.

Goolie - The R.A.

Piddler and Ging Gang and the birthday hasher
all had down downs for being Silly-Billies!

ON! ON! HTT
