

Run 539 - Seven Stars, Totnes

Hares - Fallen Woman and Broken Man.

It was a nice evening, after a very wet afternoon. The G.M called us to order in the car park, where we welcomed HEATHER, who had hashed before but this was her first run with South Hams. We started with a long/short split, being told the short was very short, as there were a lot of walking wounded on the hash. It was nice to see ET again, albeit with his walking stick.

The run set off through the town and down to the river which looked fantastic with the moon shining down, the run went along the river and back into Totnes where most of the shorts on arriving at Morrisons had the pub in sight, it was too tempting for some who crept off to the car park to get changed, me being one of them. DULUX thought window shopping was preferable to running so arrived at the pub well before most where she had the company of NIPPER AND FLOATER also Pam ET's wife, who had the keys to the car and was getting full of the wine when she suddenly remembered. Poor ET and GOOLIE were left waiting to get changed and get to the pub.

Overheard on the run:

GOOLIE and TROUGHIE saying they will only do it with women (lay a trail that is).

HAVOC" the walking wonder dog, back on the trail after his walk around England, was heard to bark "piece of cake this Hashing"

R A for the night was BIGBIRD who thought he was in the Seven Stars at Kingsbridge, and Down Downs were given to-
The Hares FALLEN WOMAN & BROKEN MAN and several others
